

Four Centuries of Friendship

America–Bermuda Relations 1609–2009

The Honourable Gregory & Marina Slayton

The Trustees of Bermuda Maritime Museum

thank those listed below for their generous support of this publication

PATRON SPONSORS

HSBC Bank of Bermuda
Bank of Bermuda Foundation
The Slayton Family Foundation

BENEFACTOR SPONSORS

Allied World Assurance Company Limited
Argo Group
Bacardi International Limited
Butterfield Bank
Chubb Atlantic Indemnity Limited
Fidelity International
Investors Guaranty Foundation
Maybury Family Foundation
Montpelier Re
Renaissance Re
Validus Re
Westbury (Bermuda) Limited
XL Limited

Contents

From the Governor	8
From the Premier	8
From the US Consul General	9
Acknowledgements	10
CHAPTERS
I The US and Bermuda—an overview: Four centuries of friendship	13
II Ties that bind: Early Virginia-Bermuda links prove long-lasting	25
By Jennifer Hind
III Bermuda & the American wars: The Revolution and the War of 1812	35
By Rosemary Jones
IV Rebels with a cause: Bermuda and the US Civil War	45
By Rosemary Jones
V The Isles of Rest: America’s love affair with “Nature’s Fairyland”	59
By Dr. Duncan McDowall
VI American artists in paradise: Marriage of scenery and skill ‘made in Heaven’	79
By Jonathan Land Evans
VII Defending justice and freedom: US bases in Second World War Bermuda	89
By Dr. Edward Cecil Harris
VIII The US-Bermuda Cold War alliance: From strength to strength	103
By Don Grearson
IX A promise to pay: How Bermuda became America’s reinsurer	117
By Roger Crombie
X A changing relationship: From best friends to benign neglect—and back	131
By Ralph Richardson
XI US–Bermuda relations in the 21st century: What the past can teach us about the future	141
By Gregory W. Slayton
Appendices	149
Photo sources	152